Dear Mr. & Mrs. Thiel,
I have just received your letter and am glad to hear that you enjoyed your trip to the English Shore. I am sure you will all have a very pleasant time. I hope you will be able to see the cathedral and the other places of interest. I am always glad to hear from you. Please write again when you have a chance. I am always,
Sincerely,
J. H. Thiel

Mrs. Thiel,

With the exception of a few personal (my) mistakes, this has ~~had~~ been my best year in English since jr. high school. I have really enjoyed being in your fourth hour class this year - really. Good luck and best wishes in your future teaching years. The students will realize later that what they have learned or should have learned is pretty helpful in life.

Foreword

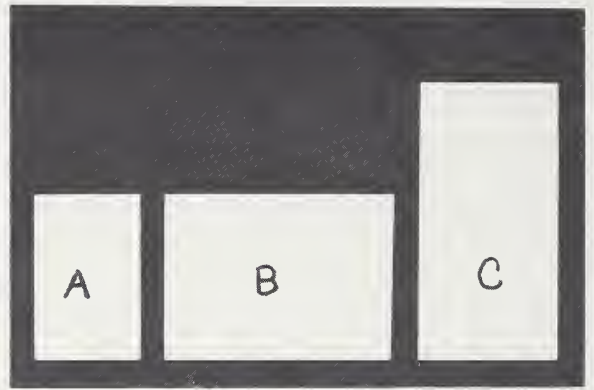

These doors open to reveal our world at SCHS. This is where we met our friends; where we laughed with them and cried with them. Within its wall we found disappointments and hardships as well as happiness and success. For some, the doors will soon close behind four years of study and good times.

Our world is us. We criticize it, defend it, love it. It revolves around us.

Additions to curriculum update SCHS.

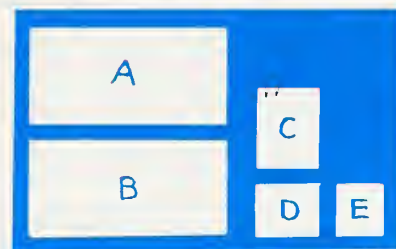

Many additions and improvements were introduced to SCHS for the 1968-69 school year. (A) Debbie Brown examines one of the driver education simulators. (B) Assistant superintendent Mac Coverdell, assistant principal Jim Rash, sophomore basketball coach Gary Wacker, and athletic director Ernest Smith test the new video tape equipment. (C) In ROTC full dress uniforms, juniors Rick Mayer and Bill Nolle display the colors in the homecoming parade.

*Mrs. Thal, I can't tell you how wonderful this year has been to have you as a good friend and a teacher.
 I'm really excited about becoming a teacher and much of this is due to your influence. I can't thank you enough for everything.
 You're a wonderful woman and a fine friend.
 I know I'll see you next year -

 Margaret Zipful
 "your cabbage - head
 president of 1969"*

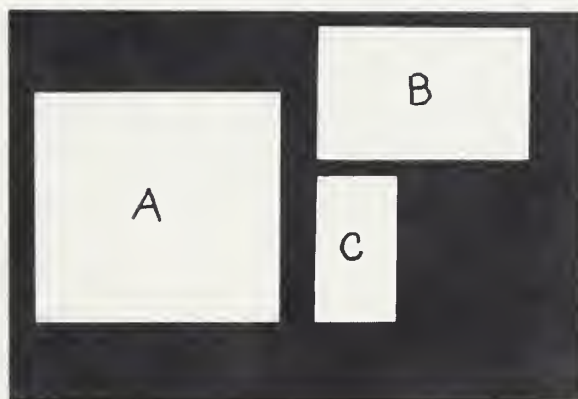

Fun comes in all shapes and sizes because everyone has his own ideas about what having fun means. Whether you enjoy (A-B) watching a parade, (C) having your FTA float win second place, as Margaret Zipful does, (D) playing in the sticky clay, or (E) making your acting debut as "Rally" (alias, Greg Mudd) in the 1969 Charlemo assembly SCHS has fun to offer you.

Study opens many doors.

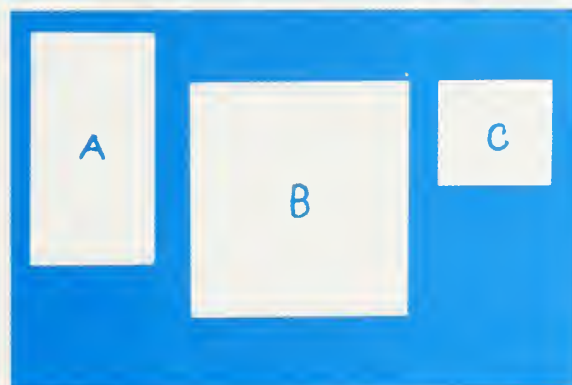

Mr.
Shel - It's been great having you as FFA sponsor. Thanks a lot for all.
Love everybody

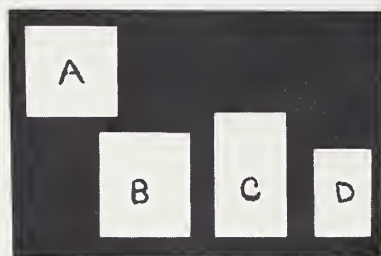

Academic endeavors bring personal satisfaction as well as honor and recognition, (A) Suzanne Bryan carefully measures quantities in Chemistry lab. (B) Steve Blackhurst drives a simulator. (C) Troy Pittman learns the regulations of the ROTC.

*Mrs. Thiel,
I guess you know your one of my favorite teachers.*

Athletic competition is an important part of life at SCHS. (A) Tom Cole prepares for a Cross Country race. (B) Ellis Rowry powers hie way through the Clayton defense in the Pirates' first season game. (C) Mary Beth Steinmeyer, Laverne Bruns, and Marquita Hallemeier put the volleyball skills they learn during class to use in inter-class tournaments.

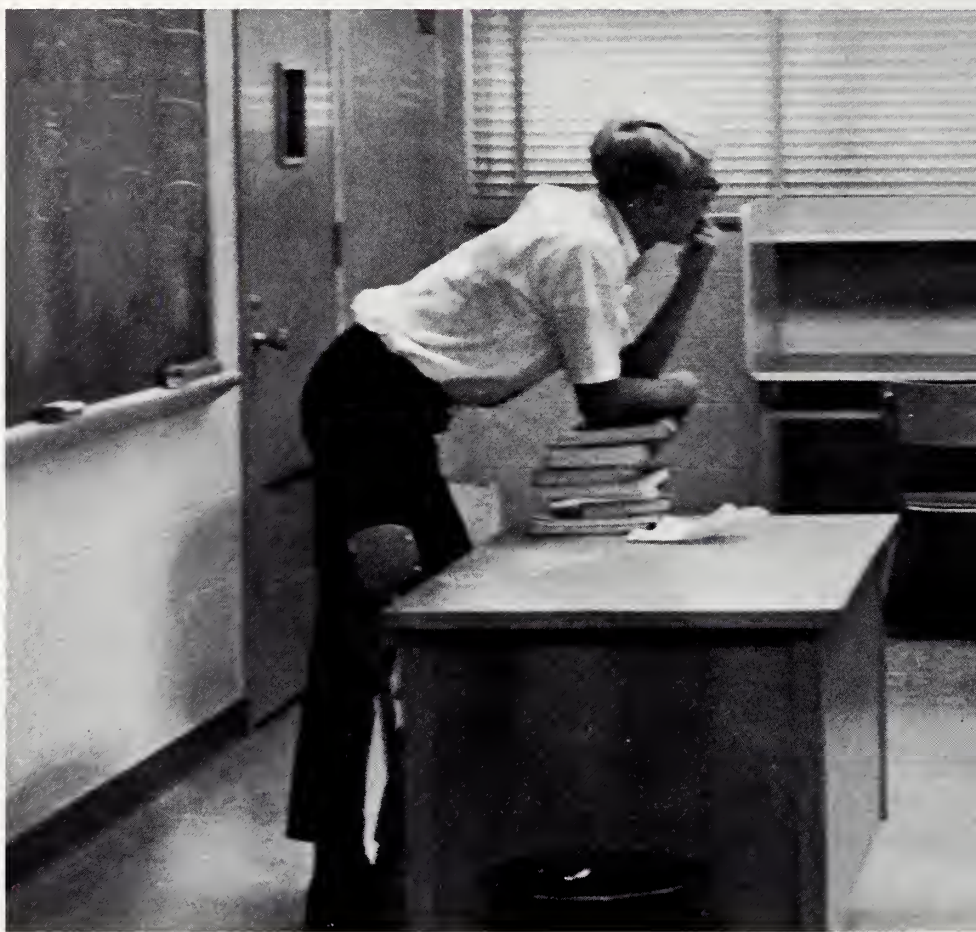

Mrs. G. Thiel,
for I want to thank you for a most enjoyable year in English,
Class of '70'

Leaders at SCHS vary widely in their activities and duties. Whether it be (A) Foreign Relations club on their campaign for new members, (B) majorette Linda Hallboom helping to lead the band onto the football field at half time, (C) the Student Council helping people make friends at the Get-Acquainted party, or (D) Student Body President Julie Kindelspire introducing Cathy Mendoza, our foreign exchange student, during the fall sports assembly, the goal is to help all students feel they belong.

Mrs. Thiel,
I enjoyed having you as a teacher.
You taught me lots
Thanks See ya
next year.

SCHS students sometimes quietly reflect the problems of the day. (A) As she wraps her knee, Debbie Longbine imagines the variety of cheer formations. (B) Tim Bruening questions the rising prices of yearbooks. (C) Jim Schaberg considers his duties as president of National Honor Society. (D) While waiting to be sold at the annual Latin Club slave auction, Karen Foy wonders what her masters have in store for her.

Mrs. Thiel,
you really surprised me
I thought you were cruel & mean & etc. You're just etc. Not really.
Though your red pen slashed my beautiful writings into a bloody mess
I still like you and most of all admire you for putting up with me & shaping me into a useful human being.
Thanks for a most enjoyable school year & an everlasting bond of friendship.

That deserves an A, doesn't you think? Ha Ha

Activities

Homecoming festivities for 1968 did not suffer from the Pirates' loss to the McCluer Comets. The Pep Rally held such events as a hilarious pie-eating contest, a tricycle race and excited cheering led by the Varsity Cheerleaders. Among the twenty-two imaginative floats, Teenage Auto Safety Club's "chew-choo" won first prize, second was awarded to Pep Club's winking eyeball, and Future Teachers' won third with a covered wagon. Participation and enthusiasm filled Homecoming weekend making it well worth remembering.

Tom Triplett and Jodell Cooper show the Mexican way of love.

The A Capella musical production "Meet Arizona" proved to be a delightful success filled with touching love scenes along with wild hilarity. Eastern dudines brought new experiences and charm to a male-inhabited dude ranch in southern Arizona. Love bloomed as ranchers became lovers, Arizona Tom, the fake hero became a real hero, a will was uncovered, and good ol' Aunt Lavinia got her man. Sherry Edgington and Larry Reubling; Debbie Short and Terry Daniels; Beth Dornfeld and Roger Bazell; Jodell Cooper and Tom Triplett; Avis Taylor and Keith Banning, and all the other dude ranchers made "Meet Arizona" a warm memory.

Aura of mystery grips audience in "Jane Eyre"

Mystery, old England, Thornfield Hall and Jane Eyre created the mood for the fall drama production. The leads, Jane Eyre and Mr. Rochester, were played by Mary Suelmann and Bill Simmons. Darlene Mozee, Kathy Sommerville, Pat Cunningham and Cindy Harris, members of the Thornfield household, helped to create the mysterious mood. Anne Baggerman filled the audience with terror. The aristocratic guests at Thornfield were Loraine Spear, Carolyn Breckle, Jane Baue and Rick Mayer. Mark Poindexter, Mr. Mason, bore the horrifying news which prevented Mr. Wood, Robert Rahe, from uniting Jane and Mr. Rochester in marriage. The play was directed by Mrs. Roselind Daly.

Kathy Mendoza, our foreign student from Nicaragua, enjoyed herself at the dance, dressed in her national costume. Laughter, music, dancing, and smiles proved that felicidad es "La Festividad."

The stars shone brightly for junior, Pat Ruff, on the night of the 1969 Sweetheart Dance. Emerging, just as her horoscope had predicted, as the new Lettermen's Sweetheart Queen, she reigned in a psychedelic world of "The Yellow Submarine." Blue Meanies and Applebonkers danced across the walls, along with the colorful couples, to the music of the Box Lunch. Senior attendants, Sheila Taylor, Janet Murfin, and Marlene Benton, and junior attendants, Ellen Evans and Cathy Wolf added formality and beauty to the night.

Strong offense carried the Varsity football team to a 3—6 record, its best mark in three years. The Pirates started well, winning their first three games, before they ran into the six larger conference opponents. The team was named Prep Team of the Week for ending Brentwood's 28-game winning streak.

Ellis Rowry, halfback, became the first SC player to be named to the Suburban North Conference first team since the league was formed. Mike Thorne was named second team halfback. Guard Brad Schmidt received honorable mention.

The sophomore Pirates ran into a tough schedule and were unable to notch a victory, finishing with an 0—8 record. The record is deceiving because Coach Ralph Davison's squad remained close in most games and narrowly missed several victories.

Time ran out on the young Pirates when Normandy broke through for a touchdown and 6—0 victory in the final quarter of the final game.

SC takes second in Suburban North League

The SCHS basketball Pirates played an exciting and interesting season, finishing the regular schedule with a 16—10 record. The Bucs again captured second place in Suburban North League play and brought home fourth place in the Blue-Grey tournament.

The Pirates provided tough competition for top area teams such as DeAndreis and Parkway Central. Even in the disappointing losses, they remained in contention until the final minutes. An exciting Regional Tournament race ended with St. Charles placing second after losing a contest against Parkway Central.

Players, fans, and coaches, alike enjoyed a memorable season. Next year's team will miss the eight seniors that graduated from the 1968-69 squad.

Academics

SCHS marching band provided half time entertainment for the spectators at each home football game.

Senior Bob Peterson and the SCHS bandroom are reflected in the shiny new tuba.

Terry Frame experiments in design with tempera paints.

Arts emphasize free expression

Expression through the senses, sight, and sound provide entertainment for others and develop artistic and musical talents for ourselves. Mr. Robert Hess returned to SCHS this year to lead the marching and concert bands. Music courses were not limited to vocal and instrumental productions. Students enrolled in General Music learned the background of many composers and the history of their music.

Art students use their knowledge of color, variety and balance to create interesting decorations for the school dances.

James Fairchild, Larry Kurtz, Jane Ermeling, and Roger Bazzell relax before the curtain goes up on the A Capella musical, "Meet Arizona."

Betty Richards concentrates on the problems of bookkeeping.

Junior Steve Schrader fires glass tubes in order to make glass bends in chemistry lab.

Senior Don Salter puts his class study time to good use.

ROTC trains, develops character

Colonel Robert Miner, one of the directors of the ROTC program, issues uniforms to SCHS members.

David Bross and Mike Funk proudly fit the new spring ROTC uniforms.

This year SCHS became the third high school in Missouri to offer the Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps. AFJROTC is a three-year program designed to familiarize the students with the U.S. defense structure, elements and potentials of aerospace power, and basic military skills while developing self-reliance, discipline, and personal integrity. AFJROTC graduates entering college are enrolled directly into the second year of college AFJROTC. Cadets choosing to enlist after graduating from high school are automatically promoted one grade.

For the first time in the history of SCHS Homecoming parades, the ROTC color guard carried the flags.

Technical school students refinish the car body.

LEWIS & CLARK

TECHNICAL

David Perrin adjusts the oscilloscope to measure voltage.

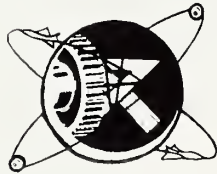

Alan Abeling and Bob Leeke prepare to examine an engine

Jeff Hayes constructs a straight line with the aid of drafting equipment.

SCHOOL

St. Charles district schools acquired a new campus on Zumbahl Road with the opening of the Lewis and Clark Technical School this fall. The school offers courses in welding, drafting, auto mechanics, auto body, and electronics. Juniors and seniors who underwent aptitude tests for interest and ability spend half the day at their high school and the balance at the technical school. SCHS pupils enrolled in the technical school numbered 105 of the 170.

in the auto mechanics department.

While brazing metals, Brad Gentemann learns the techniques of welding.

The Lindenwood Colleges ... a Pattern for Growth

The Lindenwood Colleges are comprised of the oldest women's college west of the Mississippi and the newest liberal arts college. Lindenwood College for Women was founded in 1827, and Lindenwood College II was established in 1969.

In keeping with the Lindenwood commitment to provide an education significant to students who live part of their lives in the twenty-first century, most classwork will be in common.

Organized student activity outside the classroom, student advising, student academic requirements, are deliberately separate in cases where separation serves the objectives of the student or the student organization. Lindenwood College for Women will continue its concern for the role of women in our society, and its educational program and student life planning will reflect that concern. Lindenwood II will begin as a college for men and, in addition to providing full academic program in the liberal arts in cooperation with the women's college, will develop special programs and seek fresh educational approaches responsive to the needs and opportunities of this age.

Thus The Lindenwood Colleges, in cooperation and yet separately, will build their programs taking account of the individuality of their students in every way that is important to their intellectual and cultural development.

We will long remember these years of learning together, laughing together, growing together. Abandoned halls that echoed the sounds of our passing now stand silently holding their memories. When we return, it will not be the same. Tomorrows glisten and beckon us forward. Each will turn from these doors to follow his dream—seeking, questioning, doubting, believing. When tomorrow turns to yesterday we will look back to these years and remember what all too quickly passed us by.

Mrs. Thiel,

You're the only that higher English teacher that gave me any thing that I need.

Thanks. Cook
Luby

Mrs. Shub,
I hope enjoyed being in your room this year. Good luck!
Karen Bernat
